

The Butler Weekly Times.

VOL. XXXVIII.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1916.

NUMBER 45

ON THE WING.

Albert Zinn of Mt. Zion, Kansas, sports a new car now a days. Dr. McClintock of Cornland is a very sick man. He is under the care of the best doctor in Butler. Tinker Hedger and family of Cornland spent Sunday and Monday with her folks near Burdett. Wm. O. Bennett of Nyhart has moved on the Duvall ranch to work. Mr. John Howard is foreman.

Saturday morning of last week I met by chance Jno. Beckworth who I had not seen since 1893 when he lived on the fruit farm at Amoret.

R. L. Clark's sale is to be held August 29th in west Butler. He has some good stock.

Master Ellis Nestlerode, 6 year old son of C. S. Nestlerode, was given an ice cream supper August 17th.

Chas. Burk, of Cornland, has his saw mill at work.

J. M. Miller has a span of mules for sale.

Mentry Hughes is in the Lost Corner neighborhood filling silos.

C. I. Burk has traded his home in Cornland to a man in Illinois for a 160 acre farm in South Dakota.

Miss Gladys Zinn and Tom Jackson were married last week in Butler.

Master Proctor, son of Frank Proctor, had his dog hitched to an express wagon and the dog was pulling him up and down the road one morning last week.

Joe Raybourn spent the middle of the week with Cliff Ehart on the Nyhart bottom.

The Cornland school house is completed and ready for the teacher the first of September.

Charley Simmons hauled clover for Jundys last week.

October first B. A. Wheatley will be around with his car of Raleigh's good medicines. He is a good salesman.

The Star Bakery in Butler has put in a bread moulder. It puts the bread in the pans and does the work accurate. It is a sight to see it work.

N. M. N.

Virginia-Grand View Pickups

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nightwine and baby, of Butler, visited a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Nightwine.

Mrs. Rosa Steele, of Manhattan, Kansas, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Burk, and with other relatives and friends here.

Born—On Sunday, August 20, 1916, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Roberts, a 10 pound boy.

Mrs. Frank Wynn and daughter, Glissie, are visiting with relatives and friends east of Butler.

The school board of Grand View have been repairing the school house and yard.

Mrs. L. L. Judy visited a few days last week with her daughter, Mrs. Marion Hedger, near Amoret.

The wedding bells are ringing. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Burk and Mrs. Rosa Steele and son, Elvis, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Burge. Mrs. Steele spent the night with them.

Road overseer E. T. Burge and crew were working on the roads last week.

Mrs. Geo. H. Thompson received word last week of the birth of an 11 pound boy to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Colburn, of Stockton, Kansas. They have named him George William.

Mrs. Roy Burk, who has been critically ill at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Frazee, at Butler, is no better at this writing. Two operations were performed last week. A special nurse from Kansas City is attending her.

The W. C. T. U. met Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. T. S. Harper. An exceptionally good meeting was held. The program was in charge of the Y. P. B. Special features of the program were: Music by Pearl, Ruby and Clark Walker, and readings, Miss Myrtle and Maggie McCann and Mrs. J. G. Cuzick. Miss Gladys Waldron, president of the Y. P. B., gave a report of the year's work of the Y. P. B., and Mrs. T. S. Harper and Mrs. V. W. Walker gave reports of the county convention at Rich Hill. Seventeen members and eight visitors were present at the meeting. They will meet on Thursday, August 31, with Mrs. L. L. Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Thompson took dinner with Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith at Amoret Sunday and attended the meeting there.

O. L. A.

Mt. Carmel News.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Porter and son, Algine, of Hastings, Oklahoma, left Monday after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Barr.

Larris Wheatley returned from his trip to the Dakotas last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Nightwine of Butler spent Friday night with his sister, Mrs. Jess Fleming, and family.

Jake Barr of Park, Kansas, came in Thursday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Barr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Osborne and children spent Friday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Osborne, in Butler.

Mrs. Cora Brown and son, Eldon, of Kansas City, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of W. M. Hardinger and E. E. Eggleston.

J. E. Leonard spent from Wednesday till Friday with his brother, Guy, near Nevada, Mo.

Glen Haggard our faithful mail carrier on 6 carries his mail in a new Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Walker of Kansas City came down Sunday in their car for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McKibben. Mr. Walker returned to the city Sunday and Mr. McKibben accompanied him.

Mr. Stranther Crawford of Columbia, Mo., came Sunday for a few days visit with his cousin, Mrs. P. H. Osborne and family.

Martha Day is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bishop, at Hume.

Crew Leonard of near Nevada, Mo., and Guy Leonard of near Fort Scott, Kansas, spent Monday and Tuesday with their brother, John Leonard, and family.

Norman Eggleston spent Monday night and Tuesday with Orville Tharp at Ballard.

UNCLE HENRY.

Summit Happenings.

Eulalia Sturgeon spent one day last week with Helen Clark.

John Venable and sons and A. M. Cummins and son are baling straw.

Jim Thomas has put in a new concrete porch which will add greatly to his home.

The Golliday brothers have purchased a new corn binder.

Mr. W. B. Welch was severely hurt Thursday of last week at the Grover Gilbert farm by being caught in the fans of a silo cutter. He sustained a badly mangled shoulder. It was thrown out of place and the muscles badly torn. His friends, who are many, hope for his early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Ison gave their son, Oren, a party Saturday evening, it being his eighteenth birthday. There were about forty present. It was a very enjoyable affair. Cake and ice cream were served after which all departed hoping to celebrate the occasion again next year.

Mrs. John Rankins had relatives visiting her from Amoret last week.

Mr. H. A. Wayland and son, Henry, Mrs. Gibson and daughter, Mary Lucile, and Mrs. Guyton motored to Warrensburg Sunday, returning Monday.

At last we got a nice, gentle rain, something like an inch.

Miss Ercel Yates is nursing Mrs. Berry, who is very low with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cummins spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. McCormack.

Mrs. John Beaman spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Culbertson.

Mrs. Argenbright, who was going to Kansas City the first of the week to see her son, Grover, who is sick with typhoid fever, did not go as word was received that he was much better.

SUNSHINE.

Herrell Happenings.

Miss Mary Lucile Gibson of Kansas City spent a few days last week with her cousins at the Wayland home.

Mrs. Sam White and son spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jones.

Mr. Benedict has recently purchased a new Ford car.

Mr. Mark Hilliard is having a new porch built. If it's too dry to grow trees we can have some shade nevertheless.

Mr. John Strange and Mr. George Hertz were business callers at Spruce Friday.

Miss Esther Hertz was an afternoon caller of Ruth Jones Thursday.

A number of Mr. Oren Ison's friends met at his home Saturday evening to enjoy and celebrate his birthday with him. A good time was expected and no one went away disappointed.

Mr. Wayland and son, Henry, Mrs. Gibson and daughter and Mrs. Guyton motored up to Warrensburg Sunday morning to visit with friends and relatives. They returned Monday evening.

Mr. T. W. Kinney and daughter, Sallie, returned Sunday from Kansas City. Mr. Kinney is very much improved in health.

Mrs. Berry is no better at this writing.

Ida Misner came down from Green Wood to spend a few days with Lela and Ruth Wayland.

Mr. Roy Jones hauled hogs to Butler Monday.

A light rain fell Monday evening which was a great help, but more is wanted.

Mr. T. C. Jones spent Monday evening with Oscar Price and family.

Miss Mable Card's cousin from Butler is visiting her this week.

A few of the young folks from the neighborhood joined the Black crowd in a fishing trip Tuesday.

The singing school at Herrell is improving nicely. Everyone come and help it out.

ROSE.

Oak Grove Items.

Mrs. Tom Chitwood and children called on Mrs. Geo. Sargent Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Chas. Rector called on Mrs. Jake Frey one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mabry of Ohio neighborhood spent Friday night with Mrs. Mabry's brother, A. L. Gilmore and family.

Mrs. Clara Batchelor and daughter, Nena, were Butler visitors Friday.

Mrs. Rilla Radford and children spent Wednesday at the Ples Evans home.

Mrs. J. T. Keen of Kansas City is visiting relatives of this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gilmore and children were Butler visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Walter Cumpton of Kansas City is visiting relatives of this vicinity.

Mrs. Rilla Radford and daughter, Gladys, and little son, Hershel, spent Wednesday night with her sister, Mrs. A. T. Keen.

Miss Nina Keen called on Miss Thelma Sargent Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Chas. Rector was shopping in Spruce Saturday morning.

A. L. Gilmore was an Appleton City visitor Friday.

Geo. Keen and son, Elmer, were Appleton City visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Kathryn Young spent Monday night at the Mark Young home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Sargent and little son, Floyd, spent Tuesday with the formers parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sargent.

Miss Nena Batchelor called on Miss Rena Varns Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Quick entertained the following at dinner Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Randall, Mrs. Geo. Jenkins and Mrs. W. Randall.

The Oak Grove Improvement Club met Aug. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gilmore and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ewin and daughter and Kathryn Watkins motored to Clinton Sunday.

PANSY.

In and Around Maysburg.

The protracted meeting conducted by Rev. Talbert of the Butler Christian church closed Tuesday night with 11 additions to the church. 9 by confession and two by statement. There was a good crowd each night and one night all could not get seats in the house.

Mrs. Gilbert's mother has got able to be taken from her son, Albert's, where she has been about two weeks, over to Mrs. Gilbert's. She was not so well Saturday.

Well, the reunion at Ulrich has come and gone and I guess most everyone was glad to see it go.

It is very dry and dusty in this part of the globe.

Mrs. Katie Barth is visiting her sister, Mrs. Godwin, in Ulrich and at Mr. Barth's people at present.

Cebia Jackson and Fred Zimmer spent the past week visiting at Tan White's and attending the reunion at Ulrich. Cebia went home Saturday but Fred stayed over a while longer to help with some work at home.

Mr. Gilbert sold his car to Hiney Stroble last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark took dinner at Tan White's Sunday.

Mr. Gilbert and Claud Clark went to Kansas City Saturday.

Mr. Farmer sold his nice team of horses last week to horse buyers and bought a team from Mr. Rich Woithage.

Tan White sold a team of mules last week to mule buyers at Ulrich.

Mr. Hoek came over to Mr. Farmers Wednesday and went back Friday.

Mr. Tan White sold four fine calves to Charley Rumbold Saturday.

Mr. Clark also sold a nice one at the same time.

Baptism services were conducted at the Christian church Sunday, Aug. 20, by Rev. Talbert of Butler.

A crowd of Loyal Sons and several ladies came out Sunday afternoon and stayed for the night services. A splendid talk was made by Prof. H. O. Maxey and Rev. Talbert. The orchestra came out and the Cove Creek church was filled with appreciative listeners. Rev. Talbert's family were also out with him. We have all enjoyed their fellowship and especially the good sermons and hope to have them with us quite often.

The Sunday school convention will be at the Cove Creek Christian church the first Sunday in September. All day services and dinner on the ground. Everyone is invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Richards and son, Edwin and family, visited at Tan White's Saturday night and Sunday.

Tan White sold hogs in Ulrich Monday.

A NEIGHBOR.

Peru Items.

The dust gets deeper and deeper. There was a rain Sunday east of here that layed the dust.

Misses Ladine and Opal Evilsizer returned last Wednesday from a visit in Kansas City.

Mr. Henry Laecoaree is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Lue Thomas last Thursday. They had a good number in attendance, considering the weather, as some came a distance of three or four miles.

Mrs. Geo. Thomas and Mrs. Nellie Thompson spent Sunday evening with Mr. Jess Warrens.

Misses Cecil Thoms, Opal Evilsizer, Lila Lyle spent Sunday with Misses Margie and Fay Blankenbaker.

There will be an ice cream supper at Peru given by the church a week from Saturday night, Sept. 2, 1916. Everybody invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Earsom spent a few days last week with Mrs. Earsom's brother, Mr. E. C. Harper.

Mrs. Myrtle and Ethel Harper spent last Thursday with Mrs. Lue Thomas.

The L. T. L. tried to surprise Miss Fay Blankenbaker last Tuesday, it being her birthday, but the surprise part was a failure.

Grandma Ryan is visiting in this neighborhood.

MINNEHAHA.

New Goods Arriving Daily

in every department of this store. Come and learn "what's what" in new things for fall.

NEW LADIES SUITS

$12.50 to $35

NEW LADIES COATS

$5 to $30

NEW LADIES WOOL DRESSES

$7.50 to $18

NEW LADIES SILK DRESSES

$15 to $25

NEW GEORGETTE CREPE WAISTS

$5 to $8.50

NEW LINGERIE WAISTS

98c to $3.50

NEW SATTEEN PETTICOATS

75c to $2

NEW WEATHERBLOOM PETTICOATS

$1.25 to $2.50

NEW DRESDEN SILK PETTICOATS

$5 to $8

NEW BLACK TAFFETA PETTICOATS

$4.50 to $7.50

NEW FANCY WOOL DRESS GOODS

50c to $2.50

NEW PATENT LEATHER SHOES FOR LADIES

$2.50 to $4.00

NEW DARK BROWN BOOTS WITH IVORY TOPS

$5

NEW BLACK KID BOOTS WITH WHITE TOPS

$5

NEW KUPPENHEIMER SUITS FOR MEN

$20 to $25

NEW STYLE PLUS SUITS

$17

NEW PINCH BACK SUITS FOR YOUNG MEN

$10 to $18

NEW STETSON HATS

$3.50 to $5

NEW BOYS SUITS

$3 to $8

NEW MENS FINE SHOES

$4 to $5

Sam Levy Merc. Co.
BUTLER, MISSOURI